

Anita and Nathaniel A. Feingold Scholarship
Greater Worcester Community Foundation

In 1994, the Board of Directors of The Feingold Companies established this scholarship to celebrate its founding 60 years earlier by Nathaniel Feingold. The scholarship is awarded to the children and grandchildren of Feingold Companies employees for full-time post-secondary education.

This group of companies provides services in the insurance field, financial management and employee benefit administration. It is most proud of its reputation for integrity, fairness and honesty. This scholarship pays homage both to its founder and its employees, to whom it owes its strength and success.
